

From: The Sartori International Project Team

The Project Team at Sartori International would like to Welcome you to our Organization and introduce some of the key members of our Team so you understand our background and have comfort that you are working with talented professionals who share a common passion for helping people in the international arena.

Bruno Sartori – A graduate of Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, Florida with degrees in General Management and Accounting (4.0 GPA), Mr. Sartori's initial training in International Banking with Banca Commerciale Italiana in New York shapes the foundation of his modus operandi. His accounting expertise is the result of ten years in Public Accounting, with exposure to both tax and auditing, including formal training with the Arthur Young & Co. Tax Department. Progressive levels of responsibility and complexity in the private sector provide the basis for Strategic Management Practices combined with applications at the operational level. Mr. Sartori has operated his own accounting and consulting practice for 11 years and has acted as CFO for both Public Companies as well as Private Multinational enterprises with hand on experience in cross-border transactions.

Mr. Sartori sets all policies and procedures for the Organization and personally oversees every project to our clients' satisfaction.

Ana Waleska Zuliani, CPA – A graduate of the University of Puerto Rico with a degree in Accounting and Business Administration, Ana brings extensive experience in the Latin American region - Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Panama, Peru, Puerto Rico, Mexico and Venezuela. Ana is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) with formal training in US accounting principles and practices. She has worked in the private sector as well as for companies listed on the U.S. stock exchanges (Public Companies). Ana's expertise lies in intensive work as an auditor/consultant in the application and compliance of current United States regulations applicable to an organization's system of internal controls (policies and procedures) and corporate financial disclosures: the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 and the 2001 Patriot Act. Ana is fluent in Spanish and English and is based in Miami, Florida.

Thomas Goddard – With over 30 years of experience in all aspects of global communication technology engineering, deployment, operations and staffing, Thomas is an expert in the convergence of TDM, IP and IT technologies/applications and related security fundamentals. He has lived and worked in Europe, Caribbean, Middle East, Latin America, Brazil and Australia/New Zealand. Having held executive R&D positions with major manufacturers, including Alcatel and Nortel, Thomas is uniquely qualified as a subject matter expert in legacy and emerging technologies. He has won a variety of industry awards for innovation, collaboration and leadership, and currently provides customized secure IT, communications and network solutions to a variety of major corporations. Thomas is based in the Miami, Florida area.

Paul Duan – Paul is a graduate of the Guangdong University of Foreign Studies, Guangzhou (China) with a degree in English Literature and the University of Miami, Florida (USA) with an MBA in Finance and Marketing.
